Promote equitable college and career development opportunities through counseling.

Address disparities in college and career readiness for Black student-athletes despite NCAA eligibility.

Implement interventions at the high school level to prepare student-athletes for college and meaningful pathways.

Foster a culture of college and career readiness through collaboration and an anti-racist paradigm.

Educate, monitor, encourage, and provide resources and support to student-athletes and their families for NCAA eligibility and academic success.

Sources
2. Implications for Counseling High School Student Athletes in a School Setting
3. College and Career Readiness Groups for Gifted Black Students with Disabilities