DO WHAT YOU ARE[®]

Powered by Allumina Assessment[®]

Introduction

You are about to begin the Do What You Are[®] Self Discovery Personality Type assessment. Successful completion of the assessment will generate a report that will provide you with important information about your personal characteristics. You will learn about careers that are matched to you, your personal strengths and blindspots, how you negotiate in your daily life, and a host of other useful information.

It is important to remember that the science of personality type is not an exact science. However, an understanding of your type can guide you in making better decisions for your future.

At the top of each page, a progress bar will indicate how much of the survey you have completed. Please follow the instructions carefully so your results reflect who you are as accurately as possible. Also, remember you can stop the survey at any time by clicking the stop sign. The next time you return to this section, you will pick up where you left off.

When you are ready to begin, please click the "Start Assessment" button below:

Your Personality Profile

People like you are quiet, gentle, and caring. When people first meet you, you may seem reserved and cool. But once you get to know and care about someone, you are warm and very loyal. You tend to be cautious about jumping into social activities and may resist trying new experiences. Instead, you like spending time with one or two close, trusted friends or spending time alone, enjoying the things that really interest you. You are considerate, respectful, and sensitive, and usually find tension or conflict between people very uncomfortable. Since you have a strong beliefs about right and wrong and try yourself to always treat other people kindly, you may be easily hurt or offended by the insensitivity or callousness of others.

You are also an unpretentious and down-to-earth person. You speak clearly and literally, and want others to be equally explicit in explaining directions or stating their expectations of you. You tend to be selective about things like food and clothing, are usually tidy and organized, and prefer to be dressed appropriately for all occasions. You're also careful with your money and possessions. You are probably blessed with an excellent memory for details, especially facts about people. You prefer to deal with real situations that exist now, rather than have to imagine things that may exist in the future. Since you like to make a decision and stick with it, you don't like sudden changes. You're probably not a big risk taker and are happiest with a predictable daily routine. While you want to please the people close to you, you are rarely willing to compromise on really important issues.

Instructions:

This part of the Do What You Are[®] assessment indicates your level of interest in a variety of career groupings. Please read the description for each category and decide how interested you are in that category.

Agriculture & Natural Resources

Agriculture is involved in providing food and clothing for the world's population, managing natural resources, and preventing and rehabilitating damage to the environment. Some common jobs include farmers, agricultural engineers, inspectors, and fish hatchery managers. Natural Resources jobs often involve the search for, development, management, and use of energy sources. Producers of natural gas and companies that mine coal and generate electric and nuclear power employ people in numerous jobs including energy analysts, risk analysts, and gas supply/fuel managers.

Personality Type

Personality Type: ISFJ
 You described your profile as: Very Accurate

Your final personality score is determined by additional factors that may not be represented on this graph.

Introduction

Of the many factors that contribute to a successful future, an understanding of Personality Type is among the most useful.

While interests and skills change during the course of a person's life, the one thing that does remain constant is...

Note: Based on our assessment, your personality type is "ISFJ."

Your Strengths and Blindspots

Everyone has strengths and weaknesses. The key to finding the best path for all people is by using their natural strengths and becoming aware of their natural blindspots.

Your strengths may include:

- Thoroughly researching information and collecting relevant facts.
- Making thoughtful decisions based on practical considerations.
- Conducting organized, well-planned out research.
- Impressing people that you are a hard-working, ethical, conscientious, person.
- Being a good listener and not dominating the conversation.

Strengths

Your blindspots may include:

- Being too humble, and not presenting your accomplishments in the best light.
- Appearing to be less enthusiastic than you may really be.
- Not being open to explore possibilities that don't fit your current plan.
- Not anticipating how present decisions may affect you in the future.
- Lacking objectivity when making important decisions.

Blindspots

For a career to be satisfying for you, it should:

- Allow you to use your talent for being accurate and remembering facts and details.
- Let you work on tangible projects that help other people in some way.
- Let you work behind the scenes, and not require lots of public interaction.
- Is done in a stable, calm, and predictable environment.
- Make good use of your conscientiousness and sound common sense.
- Have clearly stated expectations and goals.
- Let you focus your energy on one project at a time.
